CITIZEN DIES OF PARALYTIC STROKE

Mr. J. J. Percival, Well-Known Petersburg Man, Stricken Suddenly.

STOP ALL SUNDAY SALES

Mayor Strongly Recommends This and a Stricter Supervision of Pool-Rooms.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, Va., July 2.—Joseph J. Percival, one of the best-known citizens of Petersburg, died at his residence, on Washington Street, this afternoon from the effects of a stroke of paralysis, suffered last night.

Mr. Percival had been in ill health for several years and had received from active service in the War of 1861-65, a prominent tobacco dealer, and extremely popular. Mr. Percival was about sixty years of age and was a native of Brunswick county. He is survived by his wife, one daughter and four sons.

The Board of Aldermen and City Council held a joint meeting this afternoon to elect members of the various municipal boards.

Alexander Hamilton, R. O. Egerton and W. M. Winfree, whose terms had expired as members of the Public School Board, were re-elected by acclamation. The resignations of D. W. Branch and J. E. Kirkham, of the Board of Overseers of the Poor, were accepted, and T. S. Beckwith and R. L. Alley were elected to succeed them. Benjamin Harrison, of the Board of Fire Commissioners, and Dr. J. M. Pleasant, of the Police Commissioners, were re-elected by acclamation.

Stop All Sunday Sales.
At a Council meeting this evening communications were received from Mayor Jones, recommending a stricter supervision of pool parlors and the closing of the city on Sunday by storekeepers, whether Jews or not, which were referred to the Police Commission.

The Mayor emphasized the importance of preventing gambling in poolrooms, and referred to the Lynchburg ordinance on that subject.

Mr. C. S. Rogers, chairman of the Committee, recommending a three-year contract with the Virginia Passenger and Ferry Company, for carrying mail, and the prevailing rate of $57 for each light per year, was adopted. The proposed contract provides for a two-year extension, but the company had been authorized by the court to make a five-year contract, and the receivers of the company had accepted its authority to make the new one.

C. W. Blaud, chairman of the Finance Committee, offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a Committee on Charter and Reform, to be composed of one Alderman and two Councilmen, to study the city charter and on any amendments and other changes in the city charter which they may deem advisable. C. W. Blaud was appointed a member of the Finance Committee, on recommendation of Chairman Blaud.

SUMMER INSTITUTE.
State Normal at Farmville Opens With Bright Prospects.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FARMVILLE, Va., July 2.—The Farmville Summer Institute for teachers opened yesterday with the most encouraging prospects. One hundred and twelve students are now registered. They are engaged on reading, composition, and with great interest and enthusiasm.

The students are most comfortably and pleasantly quartered in the buildings of the State Normal School, with Mr. B. M. Cox as steward and business manager, and Mr. W. H. Dunn as head of the home department to provide for their daily needs.

The members of the faculty, with one exception, are chosen from the regular teaching force of the State Normal School, and include Dr. J. L. Jarman, principal; Dr. Elmer E. Jones, conductor and lecturer on agriculture; Dr. J. F. Messenger, theory and practice of teaching; Miss Margaret W. Halliburton, primary methods; Miss Minnie Y. Rice, geography; Mr. Harry Whitmore, of Staunton, arithmetic and algebra; Miss Lulla O. Andrews, grammar; Miss Martha W. Coulling, drawing; Mr. Lee B. Good, history and civil government; Miss Mary D. Pierce, physiology and hygiene; Miss Fannie W. Dunn, immediate methods, nature study and writing; Miss Maud Maury, manual training; Miss Maud Taliaferro, library.

There is a very great increase in attendance over last year, and most pleasant and profitable session is confidently expected by the administration and faculty. With a strong faculty, and the entire equipment of the State Normal School at the disposal of the Summer School, the teachers are expected to believe that this expectation will be richly fulfilled.

ARREST SUSPECT.
Negro, Thought to Have Attempted Assault, Held at Lawrenceville.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SOUTH HILL, Va., July 2.—Frank Allen, a negro, was held at Lawrenceville last night, suspected of attacking Mrs. Harvey Callis with intention of assaulting her. Allen answers somewhat the description given by Mrs. Callis, and was apparently dodging out of the way of the searching parties when overtaken. He denies subornation, and tries to prove an alibi. No effort has as yet been made by the authorities to bring him before the court, but he is being taken to Lawrenceville last night to prevent trouble. There is some excitement here to-day, but it is no very serious movement, and the direction of violence or lawlessness.

The officers are taking every precaution to keep the peace, and the identification of the man under arrest will intensify feeling here among those awaiting further developments.

JASPER Y. MOORE RESIGNS.
Had Been United States District Clerk for Forty-Six Years.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CLARKSBURG, W. Va., July 2.—The resignation of Jasper Y. Moore, of this city, as clerk of the United States District Court for the Northern District of West Virginia, held by him forty-six years, was announced to-day, and Judge A. G. Dayton, of the court, at Clarksville, Md., today appointed Charles B. Kefauver, of Parkersburg as Moore's successor. Serious illness was the cause of Moore's resignation.

NOW FOR ELECTRIC LINE.
Purpose Now is to Build Road from Winchester to Washington.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINCHESTER, Va., July 2.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Winchester and Washington City Railway Company was held to-day, and the old directors were re-elected, with the addition of H. C. Warden, of Clarke county, Va., as follows: President, S. H. Hanabrough, Winchester; vice-president, Charles Milburn, Clarke county; secretary and treasurer, Shirley Carter, Winchester; general manager, S. L. Hoover, Winchester; executive committee, S. H. Hanabrough, Charles Milburn and Lewis Cooper, of Winchester; superintendent, D. M. Swink.

Reports submitted by President Hanabrough showed the financial condition of the company to be excellent, and now that Winchester, Berryville, Charlestown and other towns are well supplied with electricity, attention will be devoted to plans for the construction of an electric line from Winchester to Washington, via Blumont.

BIG DAY AT HANOVER.
Former Governor Montague Will Be One of the Speakers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ATLANTA, Ga., July 2.—If Thursday, July 4th, is a fair day Hanover will see the largest crowd in her history assembled at a place, at the High School picnic. Every one is expected to be there to meet the Governor and his party. The tournament, one of the main features of the day, promises to be a notable one, and the military band from the State of Georgia will be given principally by people from Richmond and Hanover. People will have an opportunity to meet Miss Kate Puller, equestrianist, of Richmond.

FIND LADY DEAD.
Mrs. L. A. Harrison Expires Suddenly While on Visit to Sister.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., July 2.—Mrs. L. A. Harrison, of Staunton, who has been on a visit to her sister, Mrs. William Dickinson, in Spotsylvania county, was found dead in bed Sunday morning with a servant went to her room to announce breakfast. A physician was promptly summoned, but it was ascertained that Mrs. Harrison had been dead for several hours, heart failure being the cause. Her husband was notified immediately by wire and the remains were sent to St. Louis before, and her death was a great shock.

FIND MITCHELL'S BODY.
Vessel Master Had Been Knocked Overboard by Waves—135 in Pockets.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., July 2.—The body of W. K. Mitchell, of Rescue, Va., who was drowned near Smithfield, as the result of being knocked overboard the boom of his vessel, was found by a young boy to-day one mile from where he went down. Currents are running to $135 and the payrolls of the Tunis Lumber Company were found intact in the drowned man's pockets.

RICHMOND MAN HURT.
John Nolte Has Hand and Foot Badly Crushed—Both Amputated.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
STAUNTON, Va., July 2.—Early this morning a man who gave his name as John Nolte and home as Richmond, was found west of the Chesapeake and Ohio station with his left hand and right foot so badly crushed that they were amputated at the King's Daughters Hospital. No one knows how the accident occurred.
